20th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Year C)

“He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, Making my steps secure.”

Psalm 40:2

First Reading (Jeremiah 38.4-6, 8-10)

You bore me, a man of strife and contention, for the whole land!

Second Reading (Hebrews 12.1-4)

With perseverance, let us run the race that is set before us.

Gospel (Luke 12.49-53) I did not come to bring peace, but rather division.

Reflection

In today's reading, we are reminded that life is not always filled with happiness. Conflict and tension will exist, especially between those who seek the way of the Lord Jesus and those who are finding their own way, apart from Jesus.

In the First Reading we hear of one of the times that the prophet Jeremiah faced opposition for his preaching GOD'S message. The psalm echoes the faith of one who trusts in the LORD even while experiencing hardships at the hands of others. The Second Reading reminds us that Jesus paid a costly price in order to bring us salvation and we can expect similar demands and challenges in our journey on this earth. In the Gospel, Jesus remarks that His message will be a source of conflict between individuals, even in the same family because His Gospel will be challenging to those who do not follow the ways of God.

As disciples of the Lord Jesus, WE are challenged to turn away from sin since we have been rescued by the Lord Jesus and at a great price – the price of His own life. Jesus was willing to suffer and to die for us, so we must be willing to suffer also for the sake of spread of the Gospel.

May you be willing to give witness to the Good News of the Lord Jesus, even if it cost you loss of relationships with friends and family members.
