11th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

“We are his People: the sheep of his pasture.”

First Reading (Exodus 19.1-6a)

You shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation.

Second Reading (Romans 5.6-11)

If we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely will we be saved by his life.

Gospel (Matthew 9.36-10.8)

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and sent them out.

Reflection:

What is your vocation? What is your calling from GOD.
How are you responding to GOD's call?

GOD is gracious in interacting with humans. GOD calls individuals to share in the spreading of the divine message of GOD's love.

GOD the Father, in conjunction with Jesus, is calling you to apply your skills and gifts for bringing people into a closer relationship with GOD.

In the First Reading, Moses hears GOD's summon and reacts.

The Responsorial Psalm is a proclamation of the people's chosen position with GOD and their need to praise GOD for the divine choice of them.

St. Paul, in today's Second Reading, declares GOD's great love for people, even those who have demonstrated their enmity with GOD and refused to value their specialness in the eyes of GOD.

In the Gospel, Jesus' response to the compassion He feels towards the people around Him who are hurting, is to send His "apostles" to minister to their needs and proclaim GOD's message.

The Lord Jesus needs your help in announcing the Gospel, by your actions, and sometimes with your words. Seek to answer the call and the Holy Spirit will empower you to do what Jesus is calling you to do.

The Lord Jesus needs your help in announcing the Gospel, by your actions, and sometimes with your words. Seek to answer the call and the Holy Spirit will empower you to do what Jesus is calling you to do.

Listen for the call of Jesus Who invites you to assist Him in working in His harvesting of souls and serving the lambs of His flock.

Father's Day Prayer

God our Father,

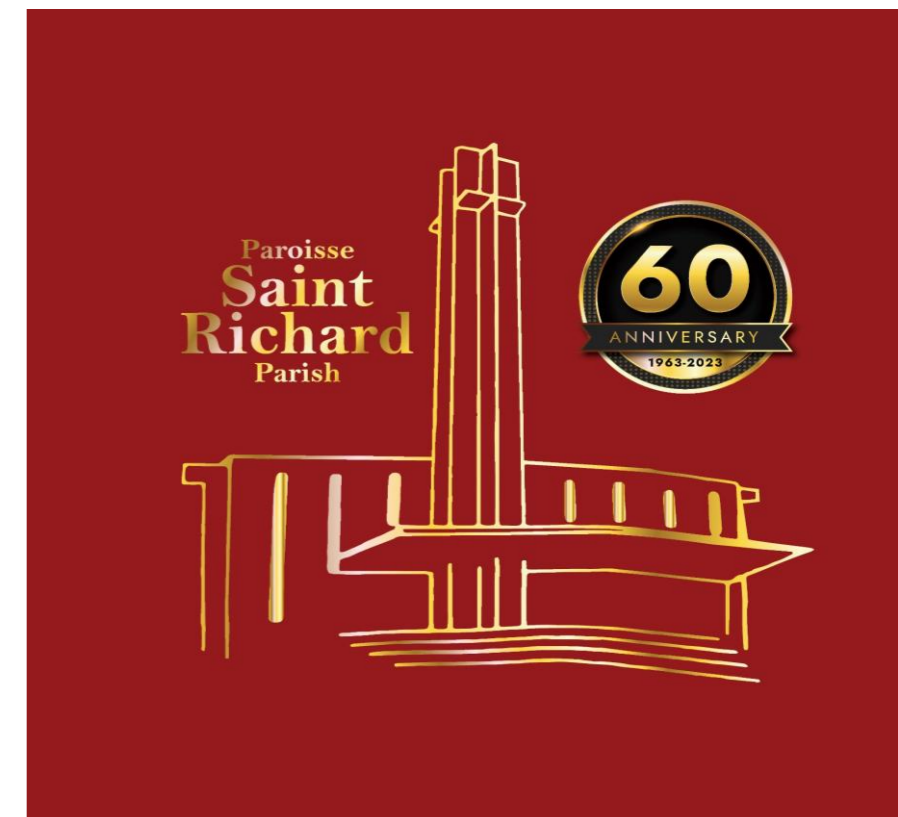

In your wisdom and love you made all things.

Bless those fathers who have taken upon themselves, the responsibility of parenting.

*Bless those who have lost a spouse to death...
or divorce who are parenting their children alone. Strengthen them by your love that they may be and become loving, caring persons they are meant to be.*

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen
