THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER - (Year B)

First Reading (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19)

Peter reminds his listeners of the part they have played in the death of Jesus, but offers them forgiveness if they repent.

Second Reading (1 John 2:1-5)

John reminds us that Christ's sacrifice has taken away our sins and that God's love will be made perfect in us if we keep his commandments.

Gospel (Luke 24:35-48)

Christ gives evidence of his bodily presence and explains how his life, death and resurrection fulfils prophecy.

Reflection:

We are so often uncomfortable with the world of the Spirit. Jesus put the fears of the disciples at rest by proving he was a real person. We do not have to do anything different or special. In our ordinary daily events, our walking and talking and working, if we do all these according to what we believe to be right, then Christ is risen and amongst us. He will live in our hearts, speak through our words, see with our eyes and reach out to others through the touch of our hands. The three years of his ministry are extended into the lives of all who believe in him, in whom God's love is coming into perfection.

"Year-long 50/50 raffle"

50/50 event, a year-long fundraiser, recently begun and will continue until December 31st, 2018.

If every family or individual could take 20 tickets and sell them to their extended family or friends, this would help make this fundraiser a success. Please, if possible help us; help your Parish financially by buying or selling 20 tickets for the Half & Half 2018 ticket draw. We are very grateful for your support.

Please see Teresa Baird or one of the members of the Men's Club for Tickets. Thank you.

Sacrament of Reconciliation: Every Sunday 15 minutes before mass.

The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in memory of Valentina Cicchino.

► ST. MONICA PARISH: VIDEO DIVINA

This year, Fr. Lloyd's film series looks at movies that courageously examine the multi-faceted experience of Love. Join him on Friday, April 20 at 7 p.m. (6405 de Terrebonne St., Montreal, H4B 1A8) to view the movie The Cardboard Village: In this grace-filled meditation on faith and historical/cultural change, an elderly Italian priest watches as his church, abandoned for some time, is deconsecrated; the pews pushed into a corner by a forklift, Christ on the cross deposed by a crane. In the night, while the discouraged priest prays alone, a group of desperate North Africans, just landed on the nearby beach, slip into the church seeking sanctuary. With the Carabinieri in pursuit, the illegals settle in the nave, silently throwing together huts out of cardboard. Warned by his sacristan, the pastor resists: "When charity is a risk, is precisely when it is necessary to offer charity."

Free admission and popcorn, and stimulating discussion to follow! For information, contact Fr. Lloyd Baugh, S.J. at 514-481-0267 ext. 32 or lloyd.baugh@stmonica.ca.
